Falconry Demonstration

Day: Thursday, August 5th
Time: 2 sessions - 9:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Meet in the South Parlor of the hotel at least 10 minutes before departure. The hotel shuttle will transport our group members to The Mews... it's about a 5-minute trip. Please note, there is no shade at the falconry facility.

We will have a list for attendees to sign-up for the session of their choice. Check at the AESC registration table (Grand Ballroom Foyer) on the bulletin board.

Suggest each person bring the following:

- Close-toed shoes
- Sunscreen and a hat
- Sunglasses

Falcon hunting has a long-standing reputation for being the sport of kings, and in the Virginia countryside, it still is! Guests can participate in a field sports tradition that stretches back nearly 4,000 years. Learn the fine points of the sport with trained birds of prey, including falcons, hawks and owls. Our private one-hour demonstration will take place at the Homestead Resort's Mews, a world-class falconry facility.
